Top brass: Council
chief executive
Kevin Crompton has ordered his staff to watch
the pennies

THE PENNY DROPS

Just before £60million government cuts kick in, council boss discovers he has overspent his current budget by £10million

By Lucy Purdy

MANAGERS at Haringey Council have been banned from ordering taxis, flowers, refreshments and newspapers under drastic new measures to curb spending.

An email circulated to all managers and councillors on Friday warned that belts would have to be immediately tightened due to a "flabbergasting" £10million predicted overspend on the council's 2010/2011 budget. The cash-strapped authority is already facing an estimated £60m shortfall after the chancellor ordered all but two departments to cut government spending by a quarter.

Haringey staff have also been forbidden from hiring out venues, using couriers and commissioning market research in a raft of emergency penny-pinching freezes devised by council chief executive Kevin Crompton.

Opposition Liberal Democrats have accused the Labour-run administration of failing to control finances and of ignoring their warning of an impending crisis. Councillor Richard Wilson, Haringey Lib Dem deputy leader, said: "It is flabbergasting that, at a time when money is in such short supply, Haringey Council has managed to build up a predicted £10million overspend. We tried to persuade Labour to restrain its spending back in February, but they ignored us and now the money has run out."

"The failure by Labour to control spending will make it even harder for Haringey to cope with the coming financial squeeze."

The email circulated to staff read: "The size of the predicted overspend has been increasing month on month and now stands at a forecasted £10m. We are also expecting, and preparing for, reductions in our government grant funding in future years as announced in the recent budget – this is in addition to in-year reductions in grants already imposed. In these circumstances I, as chief executive, have no option but to immediately take action to reduce spending."

There is now a council-wide recruitment freeze and all spending over £1,000 now has to be given the green light by directors. A ten per cent "top slice" will also be taken from all supplies and service budgets.

"The measures are necessary as we face significant financial reductions over the next two or three years," added Mr Crompton.

A council spokeswoman said: "These measures are normal procedure when a council identifies, through diligent scrutiny, a possible overspend in-year, and are designed to bring rapid improvement to the position."

"That we have identified a possible overspend and are taking corrective action so early in the financial year shows our budget management is robust. The measures will reduce the risk of any potential overspend. Haringey Council has a good record for sound financial management, as recognised by the Audit Commission."

Opposition politicians have now demanded full access to the reports which have led the council to take such drastic action.

Pollution 'causes 99 early deaths a year'

By Lucy Purdy

A NEW study into air pollution has found that as many as people in Haringey are dying prematurely from the long-term effects of dirty air.

The report by the Greater London Authority has estimated that there are six deaths per year in each of Northumberland Park, Seven Sisters, St Ann's, Tottenham Green and Tottenham Hale wards and 99 deaths in the borough as a whole due to dangerous airborne particles. The news comes as London faces unlimited fines for breaching EU levels on air pollution and has been branded "the dirty man of Europe".

Simon Birkett, founder of the Campaign For Clean Air In London - set up to lobby for improved air quality, said: "This report paints a shocking picture of the Olympic city. For the first time every person, ward councillor and politician across London can see average levels of fine airborne particles in their ward and the premature deaths linked to it."

"This report makes clear that the worst air quality and greatest legal breaches occur in inner London and near our busiest roads. For the first time it shows that air pollution is a problem throughout London. This report will have major ramifications for years to come."

Dr Brian Miller explains in the study how pollutants emitted by homes, vehicles and industry, such as sulphur dioxide, nitrogen dioxide and ozone, can aggravate breathing and heart conditions. There are an estimated 4,267 premature deaths each year across London due to long-term exposure to damaging particles.

The Campaign For Clear Air In London is also pushing for the government to publish estimates for the whole country. A consultation on the Mayor's draft Air Quality Strategy will finish on August 13.

Youth charge for stabbing footballers

A TEENAGER has been charged with wounding with intent after four men playing football in Finsbury Park were stabbed earlier this year.

The 17-year-old has been charged with four counts of injuring the men, aged between 20-23, on April 9. A fight broke out between several gangs of young men at about 6.30pm that day. The teenager, who cannot be named for legal reasons, was one of six young men arrested in connection with the attack. The other five, aged between 16 and 20, were released without charge.

Breastfeeding protest gets pumped up as mums take campaign to health chiefs

By Lucy Purdy

A GROUP of mums plan to protest outside a meeting of Haringey health chiefs to demand that breastfeeding support for new mothers in the borough is improved.

More than 40 mums have joined together to campaign for more specialist breastfeeding midwives in Haringey to help give their babies the healthiest start in life. It follows a decision by NHS Haringey not to reinstate a specialist midwife who offered "vital" help to new mums struggling to get to grips with breastfeeding. NHS Haringey said the post was temporary and stressed that breastfeeding rates in the borough are actually relatively high. The group will now hold a demonstration outside an NHS Haringey meeting today at St Ann's Hospital in St Ann's Road, Tottenham.

Sara Hall, who lives in Darwin Road, Wood Green, with her two-month-old son Thomas, said: "We are left with only one co-ordinator whereas before we had a specialist midwife as well and even that wasn't enough. We live in Wood Green and have to go to the other end of White Hart Lane for the nearest breast-feeding support group."

"It's OK now Thomas is older but I needed the support when he was 11 days old. I had quite a difficult delivery and was in hospital for a week."

"With such a drastic change it would be good if they had consulted us – the people who use the services. We aren't asking for the moon. It seems to me that it's common sense."

A spokeswoman for NHS Haringey said: "We are committed to supporting all mums to breastfeed their babies. Through our work, at the end of last year nearly three quarters of mums were breast-feeding their babies, meaning Haringey had the 12th largest number of breastfeeding mums in London. This figure continues to rise."

"The additional temporary role for supporting breastfeeding has come to an end as we have recruited additional health visitors, who as part of their role will encourage and support mums to breast-feed their babies."

Visit www.whittingtonmum.wordpress.com/ act-now to find out more about the campaign.

Mum's the word: Nicola Marsh with son Marcus Thomas, Alice Hoyle with baby Elsa and Sara Hall with Thomas are asking other mums to join their breastfeeding outcry

Pair avoid prison over stolen kegs

TWO men from Tottenham have received suspended sentences after they were found with 310 stolen beer kegs worth an estimated £20,000.

Police carrying out a routine vehicle stop in Asplins Road in February found a Chrysler Voyager people carrier loaded up with empty metal beer kegs. A check revealed the car was linked to a keg theft in west London last year and the two men were arrested on suspicion of handling stolen goods.

Mihai Boje, 41, a painter from Sherbourne Road, and Vasile Morar, 31, a carpenter from Seymour Avenue, were found not guilty of theft but guilty of handling stolen goods after both earlier pleading not guilty to both charges. Both were sentenced at Wood Green Crown Court to nine months' jail, suspended for two years, 180 hours' unpaid work and to each pay £750 costs.

A third defendant, 28-year-old Ionut-Anton Ungur, a driver of no fixed abode, pleaded not guilty to theft and handling stolen goods and was found not guilty on both counts.

Further enquiries led officers to the home of Boje, where they found another 100 kegs in the garden. Officers also tracked down two vans, a Ford Transit and an Iveco, loaded with about 150 kegs.

A YOUNG motorcyclist from Wood Green was killed after he crashed into a lamppost on the North Circular.

Ibrahim Yalcin, 21, of Charter Court, was pronounced dead when paramedics rushed to the Coppetts Close junction with the A406 in Friern Barnet last Sunday. A post-mortem at Finchley Mortuary gave the cause of death as multiple injuries.

Mr Yalcin was riding a 125cc Aprilia bike at the time. A tribute left at the scene read: "Ibby, R.I.P. You will be dearly missed."

An inquest was opened and adjourned at Barnet Coroner's Court last Thursday. Call 020 8998 5319 with information.

Fresh appeals over woman in river

DETECTIVES have renewed appeals for information over the death of a woman whose body was pulled out of the River Lea Navigation in Tottenham two years ago.

The decomposing body of Stephanie Elaidi was found by a local fisherman in the river near Bream Close on May 5, 2008. The French-born 34-year-old was working as a prostitute and staying in the Tottenham area when she went missing, leaving behind a daughter who is thought to live in France and a sister who had made a home in London. Her identity was only discovered following extensive DNA inquiries as she had no fixed address.

A post-mortem examination which took place the next day at Hornsey Mortuary was inconclusive but further tests revealed Miss Elaidi may have died from a head injury. Detectives from the Homicide and Serious Crime Command have since been treating her death as murder.

Miss Elaidi moved to the UK in 2000, settling in the Bedfordshire town of Dunstable before moving to London.

She was working as a sex worker when she died and had a drug addiction.

Detective Chief Inspector Tony Nash said: "Two years on, our enquiries continue into the circumstances surrounding Ms Elaidi's death and I would urge anyone with information to contact us."

Call the Hendon incident room on 020 8358 0100 or Crime-stoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Charred body is named from DNA

A BADLY burned corpse found lying near railway tracks in Palmers Green has been identified as that of a middle-aged man from Wood Green.

The charred remains of 53-year-old Kester David, of Russell Avenue, were found on July 7 when police were called to a spot underneath a railway arch. The body was found by an employee of the building firm Travis Perkins, which has a depot backing on to the railway line.

The deceased was eventually identified using DNA testing.

A post-mortem examination held at Hornsey Mortuary on July 8 gave the cause of death as burns and inhalation of fumes. Mr David is thought to have been doused in a flammable liquid before being set alight.

His death is currently being treated as unexplained.

Anyone with information should call Detective Sergeant Chris Kirk at Enfield CID on 020 8345 4335.

Revolutionary classes are more than pie in the sky as Marika
adds fun
to the mix

A KEEN chef is hoping to serve up a slice of success with new pie-making classes held in Muswell Hill.

Marika Gauci will take anyone, from pastry novices to passionate pie-lovers, through the art of constructing a perfect pie in classes which she believes are unique to London. Starting on Sunday, Marika will cook from scratch steak and Guinness pies and sweet pastry tarts filled with seasonal berries and fruits, helping her students through each step.

The 39-year-old, who lives near Green Lanes, swapped a career in the music industry to follow her dream of working with food.

She said: "Three years ago, I just got tired of playing in bands and on the club scene.

"I've always cooked. My mum is a great cook and my dad is Greek so it was always there waiting for me to tap into it. There is such a demand and people always like the idea of a good British pie, so I decided to go for it. No one else is doing this in London. Everyone gets dancing to the music and people can come and make friends and socialise – possibly even find a date!

"I love what I do and love meeting brilliant people. It's very rewarding."

Marika hopes eventually to source all her ingredients from local producers at farmers' markets such as the one held in Alexandra Palace Park on Sundays. She believes strongly in the importance of cooking according to the seasons so that everything is at its most fresh and delicious.

The first class is already sold out but there are spaces for September 5 or October 3 classes. Call Marika on 07866 122326 or email marika_gauci@hotmail.com to book or find out more.

Choir keeps quiet until showstopper recital at Proms

AN AMATEUR choir from Crouch End stole the limelight in a "once in a lifetime" performance on the opening night of the Proms.

The Crouch End Festival Chorus recently sang in front of 5,500 people at the Royal Albert Hall for what is one of the most important events in the classical music world. The group, formed in 1984 after its founders handed out leaflets outside a supermarket, is fresh from an appearance at the Glastonbury festival where it sang Waterloo Sunset with The Kinks' Ray Davies in front of 60,000 people.

Duncan McAlpine, a freelance television producer, has been involved with the choir for 23 years. He said: "We were told about this six months ago but were sworn to secrecy. It was like when we found out we'd sing during David Tennant's demise in Doctor Who - we were bursting to tell everyone!"

"We sang Gustav Mahler's Symphony No.8 and it was like

In fine voice:
Choristers Tara
Clark and Catherine Best at rehearsals

a great wall of sound. The sound just hit you.

"We were all exhausted at the end of so many rehearsals. You have to get pronunciation spot on so our founder, David Temple, was like a sergeant major, drilling us over and over again.

"In some 'pianissimo' parts we were told to sing so quietly that it hurt, and then in others had to let rip - in a good, controlled way of course. Afterwards we wanted to sing again."

The choir has 150 members and rehearses on Friday nights. It also appeared at Sir Andrew Lloyd Webber's 60th birthday concert in Hyde Park, during the BBC Electric Proms and Oasis. The choir has also worked with Andrea Bocelli and Bryn Terfel.

Crouch End Festival Chorus' next concert is Grande Messe des Morts by Berlioz at the Barbican on October 9. Visit www.cefc.org.uk for information.

The A-Team (12A)

Starring: Liam Neeson, Bradley Cooper, Sharlto Copley, Quinton Jackson

YET another remake with a ridiculous plot, sketchy characters and the subtlety of Gazza with a fishing rod and a six pack. And yet... in terms of pure, no-holds-barred action adventure this is surely one of the most enjoyable outings of the year.

The flipside of the Inception phenomenon, this is a film to love with your heart not your head and is the filmic equivalent of the biggest, baddest burger that won't give you any long-term benefits but is damn tasty to feast on at the time.

Crucially, the writers have not tried to send up the original 1980s series with lots of tongue-in-cheek references or cheesy in-jokes which could have misfired dreadfully, but have kept the faith with the basic characters and plot, just reimagined in the modern day with a Bourne Identity style makeover.

After escaping his torturers, Colonel John "Hannibal" Smith is on his way to rescue mate and fellow crack commando Templeton "Face" Peck from a pack of nasty Mexicans after the Faceman slept with their commanding officer's wife. He runs into a fellow Ranger, one B. A. Baracus who has just battered half a dozen thugs and the two team up to save Face before meeting the final maverick in their quartet of renegades: complete nut and ace chopper pilot "Howlin' Mad" Murdock.

Flash forward eight years and the

No need to pity this, fool guys are still together and about to leave a successful mission in Iraq. Charged with one last job they pull off a typically spectacular heist, are double-crossed, are imprisoned in a maximum-security stockade, escape, eject from a burning fighter plane in a tank with parachute attached... you get the picture.

Basically, a handful of brilliant action sequences sewn together by Hannibal saying either "I've got a plan" or lighting up a cigar and saying "I love it when a plan comes together" it is all pulled off with great style and moments of humour, especially through Sharlto Copley's mad improvisations as Murdock and some inspired sequences such as the bodged attempt to kill the chief baddie in the back of a car which is reminiscent of Tarantino in his heyday.

Probably the first five-star ever for a part three. Sublime adventure with lashings of humour, terrific characters and an emotional thunderbolt at the end. Those wonderfully inventive minds at Pixar restore their franchise to the top of the animation tree after a break of more than a decade.

Christopher Nolan finally makes the big budget Memento we've all been hoping he would. Clever tale of super intelligent thief (Leonardo DiCaprio) who invades people's dreams with his gang and unlocks their darkest secrets. Just have your wits about you.

BRITISH MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT & UK CYPRIOTS RALLY IN SUPPORT OF JUSTICE FOR CYPRUS

British Cypriots, supporters and politicians from across the UK's political spectrum, turned out in force on 18th July to condemn Turkey's intransigence over efforts to end Turkey's 36-year illegal military occupation of the northern part of Cyprus.

Officers of the National Federation of Cypriots in the UK, led by the President, Peter Droussiotis, handed in a petition for Prime Minister David Cameron at 10 Downing Street. This calls for the UK to use its influence with the Turkish Government in order to press Turkey to withdraw its occupying troops and to play an active and positive role in current efforts to reunite Cyprus for the benefit of all Cypriots. The petition notes that Britain has historic responsibilities to Cyprus and is Cyprus' partner within the European Union. "Britain must use its influence over Turkey to ensure that the latter works genuinely for a just and lasting settlement and Turkey must no longer block progress and that message must get through to Ankara..."

A mass demonstration outside the Turkish Embassy included the handing in of a petition to the Turkish Embassy. This was followed by a march through the heart of London to Trafalgar Square for the Main Rally.

At Trafalgar Square, at the end of his address, Peter Droussiotis said "The dream that has brought us all here today is of a unified, peaceful and independent Cyprus, in which all Cypriots can live together free and in harmony".

Amongst the local MPs were Transport Minister, Theresa Villiers, Mike Freer and Matthew Offord. MPs Alan Meale and Jim Sheridan also addressed those present. Jim Sheridan delivered the wishes of the people of Scotland for a fair solution to the Cyprus problem.

The Cyprus High Commission was represented by H.E. Alexandros Zenon and his Deputy, Dimitris Hatziaargyrou, while the Mayors of Kyrenia and Morphou, Maria Ioannou and Charalambos Pittas represented Cypriot towns and villages under Turkey's military occupation.

The main speaker from Cyprus was the Minister of Communications & Works, Erato Kozakou Marcoullis, who stated that "The presence of so many British friends of Cyprus is a symbol of the world position that, the problem created by the Turkish invasion and occupation (of Cyprus), needs the active involvement of the international community and, in particular, the British Government, to be resolved...European values and principles are being trampled upon by Turkey. The values of democracy, freedom, human rights and the rule of law, which are the very foundations of the United Kingdom, are being made a mockery by Turkey's illegal actions in Cyprus...we want a common future with our Turkish Cypriot compatriots, in peace, prosperity and security as citizens of the EU".

Matthew Offord, MP for Hendon, said "...Turkey must fulfill their obligations to the people of Cyprus. That means there is no division of the island; that means the return of property to the people from whom it was taken in the invasion of 1974; that people who are missing must be located and identified..." Mike Freer, MP for Finchley & Golders Green added his support saying that he would work with his colleagues in Parliament to maintain a high profile for Cyprus on the Government's foreign policy agenda.

Time to find your circus skill talent

HERE'S something to impress your mates when you return to school in September.

Jacksons Lane is hosting a Summer Youth Circus for eight to 14-year-olds teaching lots of tricks of the trade, including acrobatics, juggling, unicycling, stilt-walking, diabolo and ball-walking.

For four days the Highgate venue hopes to teach children some of the basics of the circus and so enliven that difficult second week of the summer holidays.

"Of course different kids will work at different levels, but I can't think of anyone who wouldn't get the basics of stilt-walking or juggling with three balls by the end of the course," said Kaveh Rahnama. "When I was 15 I joined a circus group and performed with them twice at the Edinburgh Festival. I loved it and then decided to study it for three years professionally at The Circus Space."

On the course Kaveh met his future partner, Lauren Hendry, and following graduation the couple set up the acrobatic balancing duo So & So Circus, which has lately filled the resident artist slot at Jacksons Lane.

"We're also starting a youth circus in September aimed at ten to 16-year-olds, followed by an adult class," said Kaveh. "Both will take place on Sundays, while the adults class will be devoted purely to acrobatics."

● The Summer Youth Circus runs from next Tuesday to Friday, 11am to 4pm. The cost is £125. For more details and reservations, call the box office on 020 8341 4421 or go to www.jacksonslane.org.uk

Making a stand: Kaveh Rahnama and Lauren Hendry

Out and about

● SUMMER art classes begin at Lauderdale House. The arts centre in Highgate Hill hosts life drawing with Sharon Finmark from next Tuesday to Friday; landscape drawing in The Figure in Waterlow Park with Zoe Hirson from August 10 to 13; and focus on portraiture with Zoe from August 17 to 20. They all run from 2pm to 5pm and the cost for each four-dayer is £78 (£48 concessions). Box office: 020 8348 8716.

● YEP... it's nearly that time when the arts world decamps to the Edinburgh Festival. To see what all the fuss is about without going to Scotland, catch one of the festival previews Downstairs at the King's Head in Crouch End. Next up is a double-bill with Seann Walsh and Mike Wozniak on Friday. Doors open at 8pm and tickets cost £7 (£5 concs). Box office: 020 8340 1028.

● SEE Dorothy, The Tin Man and co in a new, funky light at the Millfield Arts Centre. The Wiz, the 1970s Afro-American musical inspired by The Wizard of Oz, is presented by Millfield Youth Theatre at the venue in Silver Street, Edmonton, from tonight until Saturday. Tickets cost £10 (£5 concs) and shows start at 8pm with a Saturday matinée at 3pm. Box office on 020 8807 6680.

IT'S welcome back to our favourite celebrity chef and Ready Steady Cook regular Richard Cawley, who has prepared another exclusive recipe for us. Once again, thanks to The Broadwalk Centre in Edgware for arranging this for us.

with
Richard Cawley

THESE are easy to make and quick to cook, and taste particularly good when cooked over glowing charcoal on a barbecue. However, they still taste great simply cooked in a frying pan in a little oil.

These fishcakes taste as good, if not better, made with tinned salmon – or even better, leftover cooked salmon.

These are marvellous served with mashed or any other potatoes and a simple green vegetable such as peas or beans. They are also great served in soft bread rolls as "fish burgers".

Tuna and Sweet Corn Fish Cakes

(Makes four to eight servings)

150g/5oz drained tinned tuna, mashed

250g/8oz mashed potato (leftovers are perfect)

115g/4oz sweetcorn (drained if tinned, thawed if frozen)

100g/3oz white breadcrumbs

Create a barbecue classic with these delicious fishcakes

(4 slices whizzed in a food processor, otherwise make them with stale bread and a cheese grater)

2 small eggs, lightly beaten
A pinch of chilli powder
Salt and pepper to taste

To coat: Flour

To serve: Dill pickled cucumbers, ready-made tartar sauce (optional)

In a bowl, thoroughly mix together all the ingredients, then form into eight round burger shapes, about 1cm/½in thick. Roll in flour, shake off the excess and chill for one hour (or up to 12) to firm up, as they are very tender and fragile at this stage.

Cook over a barbecue for five to ten minutes each side or until crispy and brown on the outside (or fry for the same time in a little oil over a low/medium heat). Eat immediately with pickles, tartar sauce if you like it and fresh vegetables (see above) or salad.

Top selling tips from the property professionals.

Making the most of a Garden

This time of year, a garden is often high up there on a buyer's wish list, and it could be the decider in whether they make an offer on your property, or the one down the road!

“FACT – Many buyers are willing to overlook an ‘older bathroom’ or kitchen, if there is something special about the garden”

Here are 5 simple tips that will help you achieve more money, without having to spend any!

Tip 1 - Mow the lawn if you have one... You don't need Wembley stripes either!

Tip 2 - Do a bit of weeding and get rid of any old rubbish

Tip 3 - Consider scrubbing the patio or decking... you will be amazed how a quick pressure wash, or a good scrub with a yard broom and some patio cleaner can really bring them back to life and looking new!

Tip 4 - If you have outdoor furniture position it carefully and remove any covers... you want to advertise the fact that your garden is effectively an extra room that you use in the summer!

Tip 5 - If you have a barbeque, why not get it out and on display... unless it's on its last legs and falling apart of course!

By following our simple advice... you will make it easy for any 'potential purchaser', to imagine themselves and their friends, or family, relaxing and enjoying the garden.

ATTENTION LANDLORDS!

BTC LETTINGS WILL MANAGE ALL YOUR PROPERTY HEADACHES FOR ONLY 5%

Wouldn't it be great if the only thing you had to do with letting your property was enjoy your monthly income?

- * Properties urgently required
- * 1-3 years guaranteed rent available
- * Tenants with full referencing and guarantors
- * Contracts with Australian - New Zealand teachers, Indian IT graduates
- * Property Inspection Report every three months

Rents we will achieve for your flat/house:

- ★ Studio £650 - £750;
- ★ 1 bed £750 - £800;
- ★ 2 bed £950 - £1050;
- ★ 3 bed £1200 - £1300;
- ★ 4 bed £1500 - £1700;
- ★ 5 bed £2000+

BTC Lettings market reviews:

- ★ With not many property owners wanting to sell in this market, there is an overspill of properties to let, here at BTC we have over 200 properties to let
- ★ We are letting 1-3 properties a day - up to 50 a month, i.e. ONLY THE BEST SURVIVE!
- ★ With hunting tenants having sooooo much choice, one thing is clear and very important. There is just too much competition, if you are thinking of letting your property, the condition/decoration will have to be of high standard, (laminated flooring would be a good tip!).
- ★ Apart from poor condition, you may particularly struggle to find tenants if the property is above commercial property or in a high rise block.
- ★ Landlords accepting tenants on housing benefit are achieving higher rent.
- ★ Apart from gas safety certificate, all newly let properties must have an EPC certificate (Energy performance certificate).

If you have any more questions/queries relating to letting your property or current letting market, please call us on 020 8889 7474

BACK PAIN

By Lee Husson

TOTTENHAM boss Harry Redknapp still does not know when long-term injured defender Jonathan Woodgate will play again, and is also sweating on the fitness of Ledley King ahead of the new season.

Woodgate made just three appearances for Spurs last season having been dogged by injuries in recent years, with a troublesome groin problem keeping him out for much of the past year.

And he could be set to miss the whole of the new season after Redknapp said it would be "impossible" to include the 30-year-old in his final 25-man squad that new Premier League rules now dictate must be named at the beginning of September.

King also has fitness concerns, still struggling with his own groin injury which ruled him out of this year's World Cup, along with his long-standing knee problems – leaving Michael Dawson and Sebastien Bassong as the only fit senior central defenders.

"Jonathan will not be fit for the start of the season, he's nowhere near," Redknapp admitted.

"He's in a position where he can't train or kick a ball.

"Ledley has come back but his knee isn't great and he has a groin problem."

The rest of the squad concluded their US tour with a 2-2 draw against Sporting Lisbon – courtesy of goals from Robbie Keane and Jonathan Obika.

Redknapp has been quieter than expected in the transfer market so far, but insisted he will be adding to his squad as his side gear up for their all-important Champions League qualifier.

"We have got a big squad, but having one or two new faces freshens everything up, and gives you a little push," he added. "This is a chance we shouldn't waste because we have got ourselves in the best position since the Premier League started. We have to build on that."

Improved Skolars prove try-hungry on their way to a third bonus point

London Skolars 26 Doncaster 38

Co-Operative Division One

THE London Skolars maintained their radical improvement over the past month as they picked up their third bonus point in a row in a close-fought game against Doncaster at the New River stadium on Sunday.

Having ended their 30-match losing streak against Rochdale three weeks ago, James Massara's men followed that result with a narrow defeat against Workington Town, before returning after a week's break with another spirited performance here, but had to settle for just the one point after scoring another five tries.

The visitors made the better start to the match and opened up a decent lead thanks mainly to Scott Leaf's two first-half tries, while Doncaster's other scores came from Scott Watson, Ryan Steen, Chris Spurr, Paul Hughes and Craig Fawcett.

But the Skolars had the better of the second half, with Jy-Mel Coleman, Oliver Purslow, Paul Thorman and Smokey Junior all adding to Ade Adebisi's first-half try, with Thorman also kicking three goals to keep them in contention until the end of the game.

Massara's men are back in action on Saturday when they travel to promotion-chasing Blackpool Panthers.
